

Andrea Duggan

Passionate about German Shepherds since 1987, I've dedicated my life to the sport, training and titling five dogs to IGP3 and two to FH2—along with many more IGP1 dogs, all proudly “V”-rated and breed surveyed.

A USCA judge since 2010 and a GSSCC judge since 2013, I've had the privilege of officiating countless Regionals and Nationals across both Canada and the United States. Today, I'm honoured to serve as the Head Judge for GSSCC, where I stay deeply involved on the Judges Committee and continue to support the growth and integrity of our sport.

Outside the trial field, life is full and fantastic—married, with one son, three grandkids, and currently wrapped up in raising my spirited young GSD puppy (who keeps me on my toes daily!). When I'm not training or judging, you'll find me fishing, boating, ripping down trails in the side-by-side, or relaxing with a cold drink and great company.

German Shepherds shaped my journey—and after all these years, the passion just keeps growing.
