

Jessy Gabriel

My name is Jessy Gabriel and I have been in the sport since the early 90's. I started out with a Doberman as my first dog. After the Doberman, I got a German shepherd and fell in love with the breed from then on. I have bred German shepherds under van Meerhout kennel with my Husband Rob for over 30 years. We have had 3 dogs that we bred make it to various world Championships.

I Have titled numerous dogs in IGP, FH, RH, with Show ratings and breed surveys on multiple dogs.

I have been to the WUSV World Championship 2 times, the FCI World Championship 1 time and the Universal Sieger World Championship 5 times one was with a female bred by shown by me.

I am a dog trainer by profession, I have worked with all types of companion dogs, dogs with behavioral problems, police dogs, migraine and diabetic alert dogs.

I have competed in all types of dog sports including AKC obedience, agility, dock diving, fast cat etc. I have trained dogs for movies and commercials. Some of them include the movie "Joe" with Nicholas cage, "Hours" with Paul Walker, "Match me if you can" to name a few as well as an upcoming movie with Kevin Bacon and a Television show with Mathew McConaughey and Woody Harrison.

I became a judge to help give back to the USCA organization and my goal is to be a friendly, fair, and educational judge, to help grow our great dog sport community.
